

Vocation

my calling in life

Can I make a difference?

Yes I can! Yes together we can!

Do I have the courage to “go and see” to experience something more?

The wonder of real discovery is not found in seeking answers and quick solutions.

Despite all the development in parts of our world, there is still much poverty, suffering, confusion, lack of education in a wide number of areas...

Is God calling me to make that difference?

Yes, I can make the difference and I can do something too!

In Bolivia

Among the Hmong people in Northern Thailand

For further information: contact Sr Celine Email: ijsisterss@gmail.com